

Dr. Nagesh Bhandari

Senior Orthopaedic & Spine Surgeon;
Academic Leader

Spine Surgery / Orthopaedics / Clinical Research / Medical Education / Healthcare Innovation

Educational & Professional Background

- Accomplished M.S. (Orthopaedics) and one of the pioneering spine surgeons from Gujarat.
- Advanced fellowship training in spine surgery at the internationally renowned Rehabilitations Krankenhaus, Germany, under the mentorship of Prof. J. Harms, a globally recognized authority in spine surgery.
- Rendered extensive clinical services at leading government and institutional hospitals, including V. S. General Hospital, K. M. School of Post Graduate Medicine and Research, and Paraplegia Hospital

Contributions in Medical & Clinical Practice

• Spine Surgery & Orthopaedic Excellence

Dr. Nagesh Bhandari has extensive experience in advanced spine surgical procedures and has collaborated with globally acclaimed surgeons such as Dr. C. S. Ranawat, Dr. Peter Fowler, Prof. H. W. Pia, Prof. B. G. Weber, and Prof. M. Michon. His work reflects high standards of surgical precision, patient safety, and clinical outcomes.

• Innovation in Surgical Systems

He has contributed to the development of cost-effective surgical instrumentation systems, enabling improved accessibility and affordability of advanced spine care.

Clinical Research & Academic Engagement

He has presented numerous research papers at international, national, and state-level conferences, and has been invited as a faculty member and chairperson, reflecting his academic leadership and contribution to evidence-based medicine.

Awards & Recognition

Gold Medal – Best Poster Presentation

Awarded at the 46th Annual Conference of Indian Orthopaedic Association for outstanding research contribution.

Navratna of Gujarat Award

Conferred by Dainik Bhaskar Group for excellence in spine surgery, education, aviation, and Indology.

College Dunia Excellence Award (2023)

Recognized for Outstanding Leadership in academic and institutional development.

Leadership, Institutional Contributions & Social Service

Academic & Institutional Leadership

Dr. Nagesh Bhandari is the Founder of Indus University and currently serves as the Associate President, contributing to higher education, research, and institutional governance. He is also a member of the Presidential Secretariat, guiding strategic academic initiatives.

Promotion of Indic Knowledge Systems

Under his leadership, Indus University has achieved global recognition, including honours from Infinity Foundation and the prestigious Adani Indology Award (2025) for contributions to Indic studies and civilizational research.

Philanthropy & Social Responsibility

He is the Managing Trustee of Bhandari Charitable Trust, actively engaged in healthcare, education, and community welfare initiatives.

Entrepreneurship & Skill Development

Founder Director of Ahmedabad Aviation & Aeronautics Ltd. and Western India Institute of Aeronautics Pvt. Ltd., contributing to aviation training and skill development.